

NARRATIVE TEXTS

War

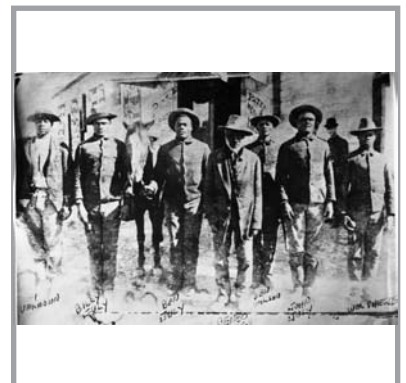

The peoples of Texas have fought with each other and against the world when called. At times fighting for glory, for territory, for independence, or for their very lives, Texans of all backgrounds have distinguished themselves with their sacrifices.

U.S. Army troops leaving for the Spanish-American War, Laredo, 1898

Chorus of Japanese and German elementary school children, Crystal City internment camp, 1945

Black Seminole scouts at Fort Clark, c. 1885: Billy July, Ben July, Denbo Factor, Ben Wilson, John July, and William Shields

NARRATIVE TEXTS

Quannah Parker, Comanche chief

*Japanese Texan Matsuo
Kawamura from San Benito
being sworn into the Air Corps,
January 28, 1942*

*Buffalo Soldier of the 24th
Infantry Regiment*

NARRATIVE TEXTS

Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery, May 31, 1948

First women trained as Air Force combat pilots. Lackland AFB, San Antonio, 1977